FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF GERMANY

The Ministry of Climate, Energy and Utilities of Denmark and the Federal Ministry of Economic Affairs and Energy of the Federal Republic of Germany (hereinafter referred to individually as a “Participant” and collectively as the “Participants”),

Have reached the following understanding:

Section 1 – Scope

This Arrangement is an arrangement in the sense of Article 6 paragraph 2 of the 1996 Protocol to the Convention on the Prevention of Marine Pollution by Dumping of Wastes and Other Matter, 1972 (“London Protocol”), as amended by Resolution LP. 3(4) of 30th October 2009. Any definitions used should be understood as they are understood in the context of the London Protocol and applicable European Union law.

This Arrangement will apply to cross-border transportation of CO<sub>2</sub> between the territories of the Participants with the purpose of permanent geological storage.

Section 2 – Allocation of permits

The Participants recognise that all necessary permit responsibilities will be allocated to the relevant authorities of each Participant’s country in accordance with the London Protocol. A current list of relevant permitting authorities is:

For Denmark:

- The Danish Energy Agency (Energistyrelsen) is responsible for the issuance of exploration permits, CO<sub>2</sub> storage permits as well as ETS permits:

Section 3 – Legal Nature

This Arrangement does not create any rights or obligations under international law and does not impose any financial obligations on the Participants. All activities carried out under this Arrangement will be conducted in full compliance with all applicable international law and European Union law, as well as the relevant national law.

Section 4 – Amendment procedures and mutual understanding

This Arrangement may be amended at any time by jointly written consent of the Participants. The Participants will inform and consult each other should they foresee any necessary amendments.

At any time, the Participants will consult, at the request of one of them, on any matter relating to this Arrangement, in the spirit of cooperation, good faith and mutual trust, to quickly resolve any difficulties or misunderstandings that may arise.

The Participants will convene at least once a year to evaluate the Arrangement, unless they decide not to convene by joint written consent. The Participants will convene alternatively in Copenhagen and Berlin, or in any other place decided upon by the Participants by joint written consent.

Section 5 – Final provisions

This Arrangement will come into effect upon the last signature. This Arrangement may be terminated by either Participant. The other Participant should be informed of this three (3) months in advance. The termination of this Arrangement will not affect any on-going activities under this Arrangement, unless otherwise decided by the Participants.
